

Learner Profile of a Lutheran School Student

Shaping faithful hearts and curious minds for a life of purpose.

The Profile of a Lutheran School Student comes from a holistic approach to nurturing every individual to grow in a love of learning and flourish in every part of life.

Like a little seed, we grow when we try our best, even when it's hard. One seed alone can do a lot, but when we grow together, we can do great things. We can help others and share God's love through our actions. Together, we can be a garden of God's grace, rooted in Christ and blooming with good works to serve others and be the best we can be.

Compassion

I can show understanding of others by putting their needs before my own.

I can show I care by using kind words and actions.

I can cheer my peers on and share in their happiness when they do well.

I can be thoughtful by reflecting on how my actions affect others.

Resilience

I can bounce back and turn mistakes into opportunities to learn.

I can be curious and positive in new situations, showing a growth mindset.

I can identify and address my own emotions and feelings.

I can accept feedback and use it as a stepping stone to success.

Respect

I can listen to others' thoughts and opinions without interrupting.

I can accept and celebrate what makes people unique.

I can treat others with kindness.

I can be helpful even when no one is watching.

Courage

I can stay calm and make good choices when things go wrong.

I can be honest and do the right thing even when it's hard.

I can stand up for myself and others in a respectful way.

I can take risks by bravely trying new things.

Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness. Colossians 2:7
